

try to mess up one section and make it out of conformance with every other section of the bill. I will oppose the amendment. I hope that you will oppose the amendment and I urge you to vote against this and advance on Select File.

PRESIDENT: Senator Chambers, would you like to close on your motion, please.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I got my light on to speak.

PRESIDENT: Yes, did you want to speak on...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I want to speak, yes.

PRESIDENT: All right.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature, I want to ask Senator Hannibal a question. Senator Hannibal, you're going to say, categorically, that under this bill that you're offering, an action, a right to sue does not accrue until the person knows or should know that the claim exists. You're saying that's what this bill does right now.

SENATOR HANNIBAL: That is correct.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you want to make a deal? Do you want to see what the Attorney General says and both of us will abide by what he says? Are you willing to do that, or do you have to find out from Omaha what your opinion is going to be? See, you and I are dealing with what we claim we honestly believe. Now I'm willing to be bound by what the Attorney General says and you can show him your case and you can have a brief presented along with the request for the opinion. I will let you seek the opinion and word the question any way you choose and I will agree to be bound by whatever the Attorney General's Opinion is as far as this bill is concerned.

SENATOR HANNIBAL: Mmm...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Will you do the same?

SENATOR HANNIBAL: If...I would not like to say that I would agree to any kind of deal because we shouldn't do that. I tried to...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: We're talking about the meaning, as far as
